

Name: _____

Date: _____

Written Test

Directions: Circle the best answer for each question.

- 1) True    False    Crane operators are required to do a visual inspection of the crane before operation.
- 2) True    False    Operators are not required to report defects of the crane(s) to supervisors.
- 3) True    False    Maximum rated capacity of a crane is of very little importance.
- 4) True    False    Operators shall obey at all times an emergency stop signal from any employee.
- 5) True    False    Monthly and yearly inspections are the responsibility of the employer.
- 6) True    False    An operator of a crane shall not carry a load over an employee.
- 7) True    False    Daily inspections are required to ensure safety.
- 8) True    False    You are required to only report accidents that involve injury.
- 9) True    False    It is wrong to set a load in front of fire doors.
- 10) True    False    Operators should lift loads as high as possible to avoid hitting obstacles.
- 11) True    False    Before lifting, the operator should plan his path of travel to avoid obstacles.
- 12) True    False    Crane operators are responsible to conduct lifting operations with utmost safety to himself and others.
- 13) True    False    Questions regarding procedures should be directed to your supervisor.
- 14) True    False    The rated capacity of a crane must be marked on each side of a crane.
- 15) True    False    10 tons = 20,000 lbs